AT the Court at St James's, the 23d of March, 1791,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to continue, for a limited Time, certain Provisions contained in an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution certain Orders of Council respecting the Importation and Exportation of Corn and Grain, and also certain Orders issued by the Governor-General of His Majesty's Colonies in America, and for preventing Suits in consequence of the same, and for making further Provisions relative thereto, relating to the Importation and Exportation of Corn and Grain; and to authorize His Majesty to permit the Exportation of Corn, Grain, Meal or Flour, and to prohibit the Importation thereof on the low Duties,"

" Duties," it was enacted, that at any Time before the 28th Day of February, 1791, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, (among other Things) to prohibit, for a limited Time, the Importation on the low Duties of Foreign Wheat, Wheat-Flour, Rye, Rye-Meal, Barley, Barley-Meal, Oats, Oat-Meal, Pease and Beans, and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition, if Circumstances should appear so to require; and all Persons acting contrary to such Prohibition were thereby made liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures therein mentioned.

And whereas by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, " An Act to continue and amend so much of Two Acts, made in the last Session of Parliament, as relates to the Importation and Exportation of Corn and Grain, and to the authorizing His Majesty to permit the Exportation of Corn, Grain, Meal or Flour, and to prohibit the Importation thereof on the low Duties," the said beforementioned Act was further continued in Force until the 10th Day of June, 1791.

And whereas, in consequence of Two Orders in Council, the one dated the 13th of October, 1790, and the other dated the 18th of February, 1791, Foreign Wheat and Wheat-Meal are now prohibited to be imported at the low Duties: And whereas it appears that the Price of Wheat, since the issuing of the said Orders, is considerably risen, and it is on that Account become expedient to allow the same to be imported on the low Duties; His Majesty doth, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by virtue of the Powers vested in Him by the before-mentioned Acts, hereby revoke so much of the said before-mentioned Orders as relate to the Importation of Foreign Wheat and Wheat-Meal at the low Duties: And His Majesty doth hereby order, by and with the Advice aforesaid, that until the 10th Day of June next ensuing, it shall be lawful to import into any Port of this Kingdom any Foreign Wheat or Wheat-Meal on Payment of the low Duties, any Thing in the said Orders to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas by the said before-mentioned Orders it is ordered and declared, that nothing therein contained is intended to prevent the Importation of Wheat or Wheat-Meal for the Purpose of being warehoused, without Payment of Duty, according to the Provisions of an Act, passed in the 13th Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, " An Act to regulate the Importation and Exportation of Corn," and that the same may be again delivered out, subject to such and the like Securities, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, as are specified and provided with respect to the landing, lodging and securing in Warehouses, and delivering out of Corn or Flour so imported, without Payment of Duty, by the said Act, passed in the 13th Year of His Majesty's Reign, or any subsequent Acts; His Majesty doth hereby order and declare, that any Wheat or Wheat-Flour, which has been so warehoused, or may be so warehoused, shall and may, by virtue of the Provisions of the said Act of the 13th Year of His Majesty's Reign, be delivered, in order to be used or consumed in this Kingdom, the Person or Persons so taking out the same having first paid down, in ready Money, such Duties as shall, at the Time of taking out the said Wheat or Wheat-Flour, be due and payable for Wheat or Wheat-Flour imported into the same Port, subject to all the Regulations contained in the said before-mentioned Act.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

Mortis, 20 Die Martii, 1791.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of William Paxton, Esquire, and also of the Petition of several Persons whose Names are thereunto subscribed, on Behalf of themselves and others, being legal Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Newark, in the County of Nottingham, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said Borough of Newark, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the Petitions did in Part depend upon the Right of Election; and that thereupon the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the said Petitioner, William Paxton, Esquire, and also for the said Petitioners, Electors of the Borough of Newark, delivered in a Statement as follows: "Statement on the Part of the Petitioners, with Regard to the Right of Election." "The Words of the last Determination of the House of Commons, in the Resolution of 11th January, 1699, (That the Mayor, Aldermen and Inhabitant within the Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, who pay or ought to pay Scot and Lot within the said Borough, have a Right to vote at the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough), express so correctly the Right for which the Petitioners contend, that they can scarcely employ any other Language that would serve to elucidate, or render more plain, the Meaning of those Words, but, in Compliance with the Requisition of the Committee, they state that, according to the said Resolution, all Inhabitants who are rated and pay, and also all Inhabitants who by Law ought to be rated and to pay, the Poor and other parochial Taxes, have a Right to vote at the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough." That the Counsel for the Sitting Members William Crosbie and John Manners Sutton, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Sitting Members contend that the Construction of the last Resolution of the House of Commons of the 11th Day of January, 1699-1700, (That the Mayor, Alderman and all the Inhabitants within the said Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, who pay or ought to pay Scot and Lot within the said Borough, have a Right to vote at the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough) is, that the Mayor and Alderman, and all the Inhabitants within the said Borough, who being rated to the Parish Levies or Assessments, have actually paid, or will pay in the Course of the Collection, or are compellable by Law to pay, or are left out of the Rate by the Fraud and Criminal Conduct of those who have the Management of the Rate, or of the Justices at the Sessions to which the Appeal from the Rate lies, or who, by being improperly left out of the Rate, have not had Time to appeal, or to try their Appeal, before the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, or who have come in the Occupation of rateable Property subsequent to the Allowance of the Rate immediately preceding the Election, and have not been therein inserted, have a Right to vote at the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners, the said Select Committee have determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Newark." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members, the said Select Committee have determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Newark." That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of Election, have determined, "That the Right of voting for Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Newark, in the County of Nottingham, is in the Mayor, Aldermen and all the Inhabitants paying Scot and Lot within the said Borough." I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, "An Act for the further Regulation of the Trial of Controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament." Given under my Hand the Twenty-second Day of March, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-one.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

JAMES Martin Lloyd, Esquire, John Butcher, Thomas Sone, Siderick Elgar, William Cooper, Thomas Newman, Charles Groome, Thomas Young, Edmund Streeter, John Batcheler, Richard Kemp, William Sharp, and Richard Jenner, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That by a late Resolution of a Select Committee of the House appointed to try the Merits of the Petition of Sir John Honeywood, Baronet, and John Curtis, Esquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return for the Borough of Steyning, in the County of Suffex, and which, on the Seventh Day of March, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-one, was by them reported to the House, the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough is declared to be in the "Inhabitants of ancient Houses, and "Houses built on the Sites of ancient Houses within "the Borough of Steyning, being Householders "paying Scot and Lot, and not receiving Alms." That the Petitioners are not satisfied with the said Resolution, and are desirous of being admitted Parties to oppose the said Right of Election, and to have the Benefit of the Statute in that Behalf made and provided. I do hereby give Notice that the House has appointed Wednesday the Fourth Day of May next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration. Given under my Hand the Twenty-second Day of March, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-one.
